

March 14th, 2023

Dear Culinary Artists,

You are cordially invited to participate and showcase your creative culinary culture as part of a brand-new event called Wine in the Woods on May 21st, 2023! This new event is filling in for Taste of Plumas, which was a popular and sold-out event for 13 years. We are branching out to new places and still looking to highlight our local restaurants and offer a fantastic event.

We would love to have your support with this brand-new fundraiser for Plumas Arts!

Wine in the Woods is:

- Sunday, May 21, from 2-5pm.
- A wine tasting and appetizer event in Greenville, CA at Wild Plumas.
- Appetizers from local restaurants will be paired with wines for attendees.
- The event will also feature music and a small prize drawing or auction.

We would love you to be part of Wine in the Woods and are happy to provide you with more information or answer any other questions that you might have. Please let us know you are interested by emailing Courtney@plumasarts.org or calling to talk to Courtney or Kara at 530-283-3402 and we will add you to our list for this event.

The event benefits Plumas Arts, the county's most active and resourceful cultural organization with a diversity of programs that serve our area with arts education programs, gallery of resident artist's work as well as producing and co-producing many of the performances and cultural events across the county and providing information and support for artists and events across the county. Plumas Arts also manages the Town Hall Theatre in Quincy.

We are looking forward to working with you and hearing from you soon,

Kara Rockett-Arsenault,

Plumas Arts Executive Director
